

The Missionary Sisters of the Holy Ghost, the Staff of the Catholic Research Institute, will be forever indebted to

Mr. Patrick Henry Omlor, for all of his hard work with our Institute, through his lectures at their National Conferences on the Latin Mass and the Restoration of the Roman Catholic Church.

We wish to publicly thank Mr. Omlor for releasing to our Institute, exclusive permission, and sole privilege of publishing his works in single form, for the last 18 years, in order to continue to instruct the Catholic faithful on the errors of what Mr. Omlor so well dubbed,

The Robber Church!

May he Rest in Peace!

Reverend Mother Marie de Montfort, CMSS,
Founder of the Catholic Research Institute, with Mr. Patrick Henry Omlor.

AN APOSTOLATE OF THE MISSIONARY SISTERS OF THE HOLY GHOST

The Writings of Patrick Henry Omlor ✦ ✦ ✦ Imperative to Our Times

Denotes Does Not Imply Accomplishes. . . $50¢

Omlor clarifies the teaching of St. Thomas Aquinas, regarding the form of the Consecration in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The Angelic Doctor is not in favor of the "short form" of the words of Consecration!

Five Flaws Found $2.25

An exposition of a poorly researched argument against the thesis that the Novus Ordo Missae is per se invalid. Mr. Omlor has had few objections to his works.

Has the Church Found the Right? $2.75

Some say that the Novus Ordo may be bad, but certainly not invalid, because it "has been approved". Does the Church have the right to approve a heretical form of worship? No.

Insights Into Heresy. . . $2.75

This is a reprint of the first issue of Interdum. Here Omlor defines heresy and demonstrates how some teachings of the Robber Church are truly heretical.

Invalidity Watch: The Robber Church Strikes Again! . . . $2.25

Text from the 1998 Restoration Conference Key-note Address, on the necessity of the words, "Mysterium Fidei" in the Consecration. Includes a brief look at the differences in the form of the Sacraments in the various Rites of the Church.

No Mystery of Faith: No Mass. . . $3.00

The removal of the words, Mysterium Fidei, from the Consecration of the Wine invalidates the form, which makes it impossible for the modern liturgies to bring Christ on the altar.

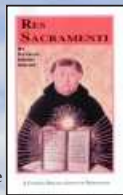

Questioning the Validity of the Masses Using the New, All-English Canon . . . $7.00

The first work of Patrick Omlor, which sent a salvo across the beam of the errant ship of the modern church. Here he proves that the Novus Ordo Missae is invalid!

Res Sacramenti . . . $2.75

Another Interdum reprint. Why is the Holy Eucharist not found in the Novus Ordo Missae? It is because the very essence of the Sacrament—its res—is not expressed in the modern form.

The Case Against the Validity of the Vernacularized "Masses"

$2.00

A wonderful synopsis of Questioning the Validity, Omlor's first book. It is a concise explanation of the reasons why the Novus Ordo is invalid.

The Casualties of 35 Years of Warfare. . . $2.00

The text of a speech, given by Patrick Omlor, at the National Conference on the Latin Mass in 1997.

The Charlatans. . . $2.25

The International Committee for English in the Liturgy is the chief architect of the post-conciliar liturgical changes, especially the changes in the Mass and the Sacraments. Omlor reviews a directive of the ICLE which justifies its "mandate" to change.

The Ecumenist Heresy $2.25

Ecumenism, as defined by Vatican Council II, is heretical and a violation of several dogmatic decrees of the Catholic Church.

Important Aids to Help You to Defend Your Faith in These Turbulent Times.

The Effects of a Bad Translation. . . 60¢

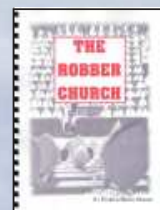

The translation of the Catechism of the Council of Trent, by Frs. McHugh and Callan, leads people to a misunderstanding of the true form of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

The Meaning of Integritatem in the Writings of St. Thomas Aquinas. . . 60¢

One phrase, ad integritatem ejusdem locutionis, is often mistranslated in the writings of the defenders of the Novus Ordo Missae. They use this phrase in error, and you will understand why.

The Robber Church. . . $5.00

Omlor compares the Second Vatican Council and its errors, to a council previously condemned by Pope Leo I as a Robber Council. The religion that has spawned from Vatican II has developed the Robber Church.

When is a Truth a Dogma? 60¢

Is the writing De Defectibus a matter of Catholic Dogma? Omlor explains that it is, and that this truth must be upheld against those who defend the "short form" Consecration.

CRI is the sole publisher of Mr. Omlor's works in single form.

The Sky Grows Darker Yet. . . $1.50

A reprint of a speech given to the Australian Latin Mass Society. This pamphlet details the essence of Omlor's arguments and demonstrates that, while we are in serious times, God is still at the helm of His Church.

The Ventriloquists. . . $2.75

Some have said that we should not worry about the use of "all" or "many" in the form for the Consecration of the wine at Mass. Is it a matter for concern?

Why the "Short Form" Cannot Possibly Suffice $2.25

Some who continue to defend error have argued that the "short form" of the words of Consecration, ("This is My Body" and "This is My Blood"), are sufficient for a valid Consecration. St. Thomas Aquinas, the Council of Trent, and the decree De Defectibus all disagree.

Robber Church: Part III Extra Ecclesiam Nulla Salus $4.00

This article is third in a series originally published in the early 1970's. A thorough study of the consistent teachings of the Catholic Church on her dogma, "Outside the Church there is no salvation," reveals the fact that Vatican II's "Decree on Ecumenism" is a far cry from being orthodox.

Sedevacantists and the "Una Cum" Problem

$6.00

A well researched and logical response to a question asked by many clerics and laymen today.

The "Unpersoning" of St. Philomena. . . $7.00

Mr. Omlor called this his favorite work!

This Omlor work is considered by many, including Mr. Omlor himself, to be his best. Extensive research was done to bring forth enlightening facts of the life and story of St. Philomena. Proof that she truly existed and is a great saint!

Question posed to Mr. Patrick Omlor at the CRI

National Restoration Conference in California, June 1998:

"Mr. Omlor, are you a sedevacantist?"

Mr. Omlor: "Am I a what?"

"Are you a sedevacantist?"

Mr. Omlor: "No, I am an Interregnumite." "Yes, we are in a time of Sede Vacante, an Interregnum, and the chair is vacant, but we have to be careful, as one claiming such a title as sedevacantist, can easily forget that they still owe perfect obedience to the Church. Even though we do not have a man on the throne, we must still be morally united to the Holy See. In that sense, we must be obedient to everything, and change nothing. When we are truly obedient sons and daughters of the Church, faithful to what has already been set down, God will bless us all with a Holy Father, and our wandering will be over."
